GREETINGS TO THE FORMER PRISON CHIEF

Following is a copy of an address sent by the officers and guards of Oahu Prison to High Sheriff William Henry:

Dear Sir: Although several days have passed since you assumed your new duties at the head of the Police Department of the Territory, yet it was not until this morning, when the new officers entered upon their duties, that we fully realized the fact that you were no longer our Warden. We, your old officers and guards of Oahu Prison, sincerely regret and deplore the exigency that removes you from us and causes the severance of relations which have been extremely cordial throughout. For years you have been not only a superior but also a father and counselor to all those under your charge, officers and prisoners alike, whose hearty respect and esteem you have won by your kindly and courteous manners. Knowing you as we do, however, we recognize the wisdom which has dictated your appointment and we are confident that you will fulfill your new duties with credit to yourself and to the Territory. While we regret that you are leaving us, we nevertheless congratulate you heartily upon your promotion and ask that you will accept our most sincere thanks for your kindnesses to us in the past. Our association of the past few years shall always remain in the future one of our pleasantest memories and for the present we shall find consolation in the thought that our loss is the Territory's gain. Wishing you success and prosperity in your new position we beg that you will believe us as always. Very sincerely yours,

Signed by Wm. Kamana and all the officers and guards of Oahu Prison.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Miss Martha Chamberlain, who suffered a partial stroke of paralysis several weeks ago, was able to leave the Sanitarium a few days ago and has returned to her home.

Mrs. Josephine Robinson and Mr. John C. Follett, first officer of the steamship Nevada, will be married at the Engleide on Monday evening. The Nevada is expected here early Monday morning.

The British warships Grafton and Flora have been ordered to return to England and will be replaced by more powerful war vessels which are now in the way out to Victoria. The Grafton's orders to cruise to Honolulu have been revoked.

The annual association day of prayer will be observed on Friday afternoon at 4 p. m. at Engleide, and all Association members are earnestly requested to be present. The services will be brief. The day of prayer will be observed by Associations all over the world.
